Hello Parents

The Elders are excited to let you know that Devin Daniel’s accepted the part-time Family and Children’s Minister position.

Jeff McGlawn has agreed to stay on for the next 30 days to help Devin get acclimated in his new role. Jeff will also make himself available beyond 30 days to provide help as needed.

We will make a formal announcement to the congregation this coming Sunday. Meanwhile, we invite you to join us in welcoming Devin to his new role and supporting him in the days ahead.

Your continuing prayers are very much appreciated.

The Elders

Hello Parents

In case you miss tomorrow’s bulletin, here is an announcement that will be included:

Family and Children's Ministry Candidate

The Elders are excited to share that Devin Daniel is a candidate for the long-open Family and Children’s Ministry position. After prayer and discussion, the Elders believe Devin brings a lot of giftedness to this role but want the congregation to have the opportunity to meet him before we finalize an offer.

Please join us at the potluck this Sunday, September 28, where Devin will be available for informal conversation. Your feedback is welcome and will help guide the final decision, which the Elders expect to make by the end of next week.

The Elders want to make sure you have an opportunity to meet Devin and share any feedback you would like. The role he is being considered for is part-time, with the possibility of evolving into a full-time position in the future.

A little background: Devin recently moved to St. Louis from Florida. He holds a graduate degree in Music and has experience working with youth ministry at his previous church. He is also currently pursuing a Bible degree through Abilene. Devin has a heart for ministry and Christian formation. He is married to Carly, the daughter of Steve and Chris Borth. Carly is a Kindergarten teacher in the Webster School District. They currently live in Affton.
